OUTDOOR CLASSROOM GRANTS

The Outdoor Classroom Grant Program is to promote an awareness and ownership of our natural resources in primary and secondary schools within the Little Blue NRD area (all of Thayer, parts of Adams, Clay, Fillmore, Nuckolls, Jefferson and Webster counties).

Monies totaling no more than two hundred dollars ($200) can be requested by teachers for the purpose of acquiring materials needed for conducting Environmental Educational exercises and construction projects on school grounds. The District will also make available free seedlings, grass drill, grass and other possible materials.

The Little Blue NRD will provide technical and planning assistance is needed and has free tree stock available until April of each year.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:

1. Contact the Little Blue NRD's Program Manager and arrange a meeting at the site.
2. Fill out application form and layout and design form and mail to the Little Blue NRD, 100 East 6th #100, Davenport, NE 68335.

APPROVAL CRITERIA:

Preference will be given to projects closely related to enhancing student awareness to the environment.

APPLICATION RESPONSIBILITY:

All copies of receipts for purchase of materials must be submitted to the Little Blue NRD. Permission to purchase other materials not described in the application will have to have prior approval from the District.

Provide all preparation activity that is requested by the District. Provide land for the area, with commitment to leave the area as an Outdoor Classroom for a minimum ten (10) year period.

Pictures of before, after and during class activity would be appreciated.
